GLORY TO JESUS CHRIST! GLORY TO HIM FOREVER!

All Saints Byzantine Catholic Church is committed to gather in the Lord's name and proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ to all.

We invite you to join us in worship and hope that you will experience the Divine Liturgy as a meeting of heaven and earth.

All Saints Feast Day – We will be having our annual Patronal Feast Day Celebration on June 16. There will be a procession to commemorate this day that will include processing with our Patronal Icon of All Saints and four Gospel readings, representing preaching the gospel to the ends of the earth.

Please bring an icon of your favorite saint, so as we process, you can carry your icon. It will be an awesome witness to show our love for our God, Church, and our favorite saints. Even if you are unable to process with us, bring your favorite saint's icon to church on June 16.

Afterwards we can all gather at the Social Hall for our Feast Day and Father's Day Brunch. All are invited!

St Kevin, Wonderworker of Ireland (June 3)
In 498, in the Irish province of Leinster, a baby boy was born to noble Christian parents. The baby was baptized Kevin, or Coemgen in the Irish language. The name means "he of blessed birth."

As a young boy Kevin had a bad temper and was not liked by the other children. In fact, they stayed away from him so they would not be hit by the stones he threw at them. He called other children terrible names.

But birds and animals loved Kevin and he loved them. The creatures trusted him, knowing that he would take care of them and never harm them. They came when he called them, and stayed near him for hours at a time.

It was a custom during the years of Kevin's childhood for parents to send their children to monasteries where they could learn reading, writing, and their Christian faith. So when Kevin was seven years old his parents sent him to Saint Petroe in Cornwall Monastery. But Kevin continued to have trouble getting along with others, and the monks had little success in getting the boy to be a better companion. Finally, one Great Lent, they decided that he should spend the forty-day period alone with God.

On the first day of Lent, as Kevin was kneeling and praying with his arms outstretched, a blackbird landed on his hand and began to build a nest. Kevin remained motionless and very quiet, not wanting to frighten the bird. He continued like this for the entire Lent, praying constantly. The blackbird fed him with nuts and berries. As Lent ended, the last baby bird in the nest flew away and Kevin returned to the monastery for Pascha. His prayers had shown him that he must be kind to people as well as animals. (To be continued...)
